

The Trustees of the Cornwall Foundation of Promise and the Directors of Fifteen Cornwall would like to say a huge thank you to everyone who has been so generous in helping to get Fifteen Cornwall off the ground. Without the following people and companies, Fifteen Cornwall would not have happened:

The Hotel & Extreme Academy, Watergate Bay www.watergatebay.co.uk

Without the Hotel & Extreme Academy, Fifteen Cornwall would never have happened – the project was conceived, supported and financially backed by this forward thinking business.

Restormel Borough Council www.restormel.gov.uk

Restormel Borough Council initiated the entire project, made considerable investment and managed the capital bid process.

Government Office South West - Objective One www.objectiveone.com

Without funding from Objective One, Fifteen Cornwall would never have seen the light of day.

The South West Regional Development Agency, Exeter www.southwestrda.org.uk

Without funding from the South West RDA, Fifteen Cornwall would never have got off the ground.

Cornwall County Council www.cornwall.gov.uk

Cornwall County Council contributed funding for Fifteen Cornwall and has been a tireless supporter of the project.

Cornwall College, Camborne www.cornwall.ac.uk

Cornwall College has provided the students with all the vocational training they need to become qualified chefs while also having been instrumental in making bids for public money.

Job Centre Plus, Truro www.jobcentreplus.gov.uk

Job Centre Plus was instrumental in recruiting the students, and also contributed very significant funding through both their Community Action Team budget and co-financing. They have moved heaven and earth to make sure Fifteen Cornwall was possible.

Devon and Cornwall Learning Skills Council www.lscdevonandcornwall.co.uk

The Devon and Cornwall Learning Skills Council has given Fifteen Cornwall tremendous support and has provided invaluable funding through both their Local Initiative Fund and co-financing.
